Ma Koreh?

May 2023

Dear Emanuel Family,

The Nigerian proverb, “Oran aazu nwa,” translates to “it takes a village to raise a child.” The ikar, or essence, of this proverb is parents have a role and responsibility in shaping the type of adults their children become, but the community around them, the people they surround themselves with have a significant influence on shaping the Jewish adults they become.

The proverb came to mind while celebrating Alex’s ordination at JTS. As Rabbi Jacobson wrapped Rabbi Alex Hamilton in his tallit and imparted words of wisdom and joy, I reflected on Emanuel Synagogue, the Rabbis and Hebrew School teachers, friends, dedicated synagogue leaders and members that supported Alex on his journey.

When Hali and Alex arrived in OKC, Ben Shanker was found on his hands and knees looking at rollie-polies under rocks with Alex. Robert Weiss, always with a smile, guided Alex back to his seat on many occasions, and soon Mr. Weiss would task Alex with collecting tzedakah at morning minyan. Alex was held back in Hebrew School by Myrna Page, but her gentle guidance and encouragement helped him gain the skills he needed. Arlette Poplin’s constant encouragement in Jr. Congregation gave him the confidence to lead services. Martin, Perry, Alan, Helene, Ellie, Norm, and many others regularly praised Alex for his contributions at synagogue services.

Rabbi Jacobson has not only encouraged Alex, but she also included him in Batei Din as well as an opportunity to lead services and teach online during Covid. Rabbis Juan and Jacobson have always been a sounding board during challenging times, as well as wonderful mentors.

Alex always had an interest in the military, and he was inspired by the congregants who served our country in all branches. Ari, Jonathan, and Ben, all wonderful examples of being a mensch, stirred Alex’s dream to serve in the U.S. Navy (as a kid, he wanted to be a Naval Aviator), and now, he is a Naval Chaplain.

This bulletin article is too short to mention all the amazing synagogue members, and my words are inadequate to express our gratitude for the best community.

See you around our wonderful shul!
