Ma Koreh?

March 2024

Dear Emanuel Family,

“Am Yisrael Chai!!!”

As many of us have seen on the news, Jewish and Israeli students feel vulnerable and unsafe, since October 7th and in many ways even before. Jewish students are choosing not to visibly identify as Jewish, curbing their views during class discussions, or not participating in fear of repercussions. However, top Jewish and Israeli athletes are front and center every time they take the court or field to participate for their university or college.

On Tuesday, February 27th, a small group of Emanuel youth and Hillel students saw the Cowgirls face the West Virginia Mountaineers. We went in support of Israeli basketball player and Oklahoma State Cowgirl, Lior Garzon on her senior night. It was a special night. Lior’s parents came from Israel to escort her on this special occasion (her last collegiate season in the United States), and our group waved Israeli flags and cheered every time she touched the ball, made a great play, or scored. What a feeling after the game! Her appreciation for the support and her smile of gratitude made it an amazing evening.

Lior is not the only Israeli athlete in the state. Jordan Hasson is an Oklahoma Sooner tennis player. Hillel will be going regularly to cheer for Jordan, and I would like to assemble a larger group of Emanuel members to make a racket for OU and Jordan in the tennis Red River Rivalry, Sunday, April 7th. The tennis match begins at 1 PM, and we can leave from the synagogue after Hebrew School and picnic near the courts.

For more information you can contact Zach Kampf at Hillel at engage@ouhillel.org.

See you around the tennis court to cheer on Jordan,
Jeff Goss

Sisterhood had a wonderful turnout at our Traditional Recipes baking class! Thank you to Cheri Mannes for teaching us how to make delicious Streudel (Eleanor Miller's recipe), Choco-Chip Mandelbrot, and a yeasted Rugelach, and for all of your insights into the science of baking! And thank you to all the ladies who participated! We had a great time meeting new faces, reconnecting, sharing great stories, and having fun learning together! We are looking forward to another class in the future!

Mazal tov to Helene Harpman for receiving the 2024 Martha Weiss Sisterhood Volunteer of the Year award! We are thankful and grateful for all the amazing ways you contribute to our community, and your volunteerism that helps keep our Sisterhood thriving! We will be celebrating her honor on Sunday, April 7th, so save the date! More details coming soon in the Emanu-mails.
